Stone & Candle Book Signing and Exhibition
Opening Reception: Saturday, September 23rd, 2023, 5:00 – 8:00 pm
45 Main Street, Hastings on Hudson, NY 10706

Stone & Candle: Armenian Monasteries presents treasures of the early Christian era, many of them meditative world heritage sites as early as the 4th century.

Stone and Candle, a photographic journey conceived by the couple Ted Andreasian and Nune Karamyan, is an ode to Armenian landscape, Christian architectural creations, and the magnificent churches that were skillfully brought out of the rocks and assembled over the course of centuries.

-- From the forward by Ara Zarian --

Ted & Nune seek inspiration and a spiritual dimension in the manmade world. Their partnership has produced several internationally recognized projects, including Stone & Candle, Desert Agreement, and Crawlspace. Their work is held in many private collections and has been exhibited in the US, Armenia, Japan, China, Korea, Europe, and Russia.

Ted and Nune are, respectively, the VP and Fine Art Co-Chair of the American Society of Media Photographers, NY chapter. In their studio, they encourage the sharing of ideas and skills among artists and the community. They live in Hastings on Hudson with their cat, Pndouk.

Exhibition runs through November 6, 2023. Exhibition hours, 11-5, Wed-Sun, or by appointment.

Ted & Nune work out of their new studio where they exhibit fine art prints, offer museum-grade printing services, and hold photography and printing workshops,
